IT'S LOCAL NEWS.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

News notes this week are few and far between; guess the editor will stop our salary but this is the best we can do.

Dr. Nave and wife of Shiner, were town a few hours Thursday.

Yeager went over to Smith-vi business the early part of the week.

Mrs. R. S. Burke, of Merrett, is here on a visit to her father and mother.

Ed More, of Altair, formerly night operator here, was shaking hands with his many friends here last Wednesday.

F. X. Semelmann gave another performance of his wonderful strength Saturday night.

Fred Jackson, who has been attending school in Austin, came home Saturday to spend the holidays with his parents.

Most of our citizens who have been attending court at LaGrange, came home Saturday.

The all absorbing topic of conversation here now is the trial of Sam. Burkett for the murder of detective Horne, which of course is fresh in the minds of the GAZETTE readers. At noon Saturday all of the evidence had been taken and the lawyers were arguing the case. As we heard only one side, we can give no opinion as to what the verdict will be; but the evidence though circumstantial, seems to be very strong against Burkett.

Fred Diedrich went over to Shiner Sunday to see the sights.

Our tonsorial artist, Harley Anderson, is going to leave us shortly to locate in Hillsboro. We are sorry to lose Harley, but wherever he goes he has our best wishes.

Mr. Editor we think you ought to get a lantern for Nota Bene, it would be a great help to him while out rustling for news, especially at 9:30 p. m., and then it would save ware and tare of the wire fences that happen in his way.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

A double wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. August Kuehn, father of one of the brides and one of the grooms, on the 6th of Dec.

Paul Kuehn to Miss Lina Zimmermann, and Ernest Zimmermann to Anna Kuehn. Rev. Gotlieb Rapp.
Messrs. Baur & Jaegli had shipped up to noon Saturday, 1600 bales of cotton. The total shipments from here are something over 3000 bales.

Editor Ward and Constable Koehler were welcome visitors in Moulton Saturday.

Messrs. J. G. Moore and W. H.
Sullivan came down from Flatonia Saturday.

Mr. Alfred Jungbecker of Shiner, conducted the Moulton tonsorial parlor several days in the absence of our regular artist.

Messrs. Hughes and H. S. Anderson returned Saturday from a pleasant trip to Waco and Central Texas.

The witnesses summoned from here to LaGrange in the Burkett returned Saturday. The testimony was closed on Friday evening, and after hearing the pleading, the court submitted the case to the jury at 10 p. m. Saturday.

Master Fred Jackson, son of Squire T. F. Jackson, returned from the state north of Austin.
